Notice to Recipient

The Revenue Act of 1978 requires the payers (Department of Economic Security) to report unemployment compensation payments of $10 or more. Payers must file Copy A of Form 1099-G with the Internal Revenue Service and must furnish Copy B of the form to the person receiving the payments by January 31 of the following year.

The totals above show the unemployment compensation paid to you this year from this payer and the amounts you elected withheld for federal and state income tax. The unemployment compensation represents taxable income to you. For more information, see the instructions for your Federal income tax return.
